

I am a volunteer with the Adult Learning Center (also known as the Williamson County Literacy Council) a 501c3 nonprofit organization.

Each year we host a fundraiser at the Brentwood Country Club called Author! Author! It is a luncheon featuring three local authors who speak about their books, motivations and experiences. The guests meet the authors and are given the opportunity to purchase books to be signed by the authors.

This will be the 13th year for this popular annual event. The Author! Author! Luncheon will be held on June 15th at 11:30 am at the clubhouse at the Brentwood Country Club. We expect 200 people to be in attendance. We are requesting donations for the accompanying Silent Auction.

Through donations from the United Way, grants, individuals and companies in our county and this annual fundraiser the Adult Learning Center is able to provide free learning services to adults in Williamson County. Our services include helping adults to read, improve reading and math skills as well as tutoring adults who are preparing to take the high school equivalency exam or are learning English as an additional language.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Your donation is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.

The Literacy Council of Williamson County is a registered 501(c)3 organization. Its tax ID number is 62-1265491.

The Literacy Council of Williamson County does business as the Adult Learning Center.

No goods or services were received in consideration of this gift.